'Twas the Night After Christmas

Pierce Waverly, the Earl of Devonmont, has been estranged from his mother for most of his life. When her new companion, Mrs. Camilla Stuart, writes to say his mother is seriously ill, Pierce returns home to Montcliff only to learn the lovely widow has tricked him in order to effect a holiday reconciliation. He refuses to stay—unless she meets his “terms.”

Somewhere between trying to seduce the beautiful Camilla and struggling with the cruel memories of his childhood Christmases past, Pierce discovers that not only does forgiveness go two ways, but that love can blossom even in the coldest of winters.
